

New Account Conversion Checklist

You may check the boxes next to the items you've completed (if any), and then print out and keep this checklist handy. As you complete items, simply check off the boxes on your printed copy.

Make sure all checks have cleared on your checking account

Make certain enough funds are available in your account to cover any automatic payments that may yet need to be withdrawn

Double check maturity dates if transferring a Certificate of Deposit in order to avoid possible penalties

Send written notice to your direct deposit vendors (payroll, social security, CD interest payments, etc.) of the change in your relationship*

Send written notice to your vendors who automatically take your payments from your checking account (utilities, insurance companies, internet service providers, banks, etc.) that you are closing the account*

Send notification of new account information to vendors who you want to continue to generate automatic withdrawals instead of paying by BillPay*; or use this notification to start a new automatic payment with a vendor

Send written notice to the financial institution that you are closing the account*

^{*} A form is available in this Switch Kit for this purpose.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

Your social security number and the other information requested will allow the federal government to make payments to you by Direct Deposit. This collection of information is authorized by Title 31 of the United States Code, Section 3332(g). Also, Executive Order 9397, November 22, 1943, authorizes the use of your social security number. Your social security number is requested to ensure the accurate identification and retention of records pertaining to you and to distinguish you from other recipients of federal payments.

This information will be disclosed to the Department of the Treasury or another disbursing official to process federal payments to you by Direct Deposit. This information may also be disclosed to a court, congressional committee or another government agency as authorized or required by federal law and to your financial institution to verify receipt of your federal payments. Although providing the requested information is voluntary, your Direct Deposit payment may be delayed or Treasury may be unable to send it if you fail to provide the information.

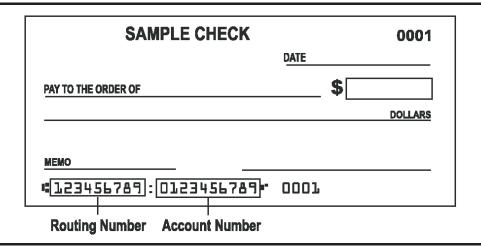

SPECIAL NOTICE TO JOINT ACCOUNT HOLDERS

If your account is a joint account and receives Direct Deposit benefit payments, you must inform the federal agency and the financial institution of the death of a beneficiary. Payments sent by Direct Deposit after the date of death or ineligibility of a beneficiary (except for salary payments) must be returned to the federal agency. The federal agency will then determine if the survivor is eligible for benefits.

CANCELLATION

Your payment will be sent by Direct Deposit until the federal agency that issues the payments is notified to cancel, such as in the case of death or legal incapacity of the payment recipient.

Your financial institution may cancel your Direct Deposit authorization. Your financial institution is required to give you written notice 30 days in advance of the cancellation date. If this occurs, you must notify the federal agency that the Direct Deposit authorization was cancelled.

BURDEN ESTIMATE STATEMENT

The estimated average time (burden hours) associated with filling out this paperwork is 10 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this time estimate and suggestions for reducing the burden should be directed to the Financial Management Service, Administrative Programs Division, Records and Information Management Program, 3700 East-West Highway, Room 135, Hyattsville, MD 20782. THIS ADDRESS SHOULD ONLY BE USED FOR COMMENTS AND/OR SUGGESTIONS CONCERNING THE AMOUNT OF TIME SPENT COLLECTING THE DATA. DO NOT SEND THE COMPLETED PAPERWORK TO THE ADDRESS ABOVE FOR PROCESSING.
